

GIRL'S WOUND DUEL WAYCROSS DUEL

Domestic Difficulties Result in Shooting Between Storekeeper and His Son-in-Law.

Waycross, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Following an exchange of shots this morning in which Miss Vergie Smith, a 15-year-old girl, was painfully wounded by four buckshot, A. O. Smith and Herbert W. Wilson, his son-in-law, were placed under peace bonds. Smith was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Wilson, charging assault with intent to murder, and released on a thousand dollar bond. Wilson was charged with assault and battery, carrying a pistol concealed and carrying a pistol without license, in warrants issued by Smith. Bond was given in each instance.

Trouble between the two, Smith being Wilson's father-in-law, is of long standing and grew more acute in March when domestic difficulties resulted in Mrs. Wilson leaving her husband and returning to her father, who moved here some months ago from Valdosta.

The exchange of shots was on Plant avenue in front of Smith's place of business, and came after a short conversation between the two.

Wilson's appearance before the grand jury recently in a matter placed before the jury by him, the outcome of domestic troubles between the younger Wilson and his wife, Smith used a shot gun and Wilson a pistol. Friends stopped the fight before more than one shot apiece was fired.

Cases made by city police will be tried next Thursday.

YOUNG WHITE MAN HELD ON WOMAN'S COMPLAINT

Harrowing Story of Night of Torture Told Police by Woman.

As the result of a story of a night of torture told to a pretty young woman in a hysterical condition, who staggered into the Western Atlanta yard office, near the clock yard, just before daybreak Friday on a warily spotted by the young woman's husband.

The young woman was sent to the Grady hospital, where she sobbed a pitiful tale to Dr. Sumner, superintendent of the hospital, who then called on her and told her that she was a pitiful tale of a woman who had been held captive by her husband for eight hours, during the night, and that it was 2 o'clock in the morning before she finally was able to free herself from her captor.

Archie, denied to the county police officers, A. T. Butler and James Walters, who arrested him at the corner of Hilliard and Houston streets, that he had been guilty of any crime.

The young woman stated that she and her husband were separated about one month ago, and that late Thursday afternoon she set out from her apartment in Carnegie way to find a rooming place. She stated that on Lackie street she met a friend, who introduced her to W. F. Archie, and that he offered to help her find a rooming place. She also said that Archie and his land was present, and having known Archie in Chattanooga, she stated that he told her to go with Archie and that he would find her a place to room.

She charged that Archie first stated that at 20 with him to the Western Hotel, and that he said he wished to collect some money from a man in whom Archie was interested who was near this place, she said, that he attacked her.

HADEN IS NOT IN RACE FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Declares Only Support He Asks Is for Georgia Chamber of Commerce.

C. J. Haden, president of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, whose candidacy for the legislature from Pulmon county has been suggested by many friends, has written a letter to the Constitution declaring that he is not in the race, and that the "only support he asks of the people of Georgia is for the Georgia Chamber of Commerce."

The letter follows: "Editor Constitution: Referring to the article in The Constitution today, allow me to say I appreciate the good intentions of my friends who have suggested my name for the legislature. I have never held nor sought an office. The only support I ask of the people of Georgia is for the Georgia Chamber of Commerce."

Whatever time I may have to dedicate to the public service, I believe, he better take part in adding more volume to Georgia's already too small library.

MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN NO. 116

The Shrine of Mammon

"You cannot serve God and Mammon. Lovers of Money scoffed at Him."

"He said unto them, 'You are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God.'"

--Luke 16-12; 15

A cash register.

Mammon's sign or symbol.

It stood in a fitting shrine, a bar on Marietta street, keeping tally in terms of gold to the death of souls.

One believed he was not getting his share; a court bailiff came to this temple of greed, where daily the laws of God and man are being broken.

He laid hands upon the cash register, the thing sacred to Mammon.

The saloon keeper resisted. He lies dead of a pistol shot, Atlanta's latest offering to the god of greed.

Mammon's myriad forms are being seen today as clearly as was, long ago, the beast headed idol Moloch, whose image was a furnace with a lap wherein mothers were wont to lay their babies, living, to shrivel and die in the hellish heat—mothers obsessed, thinking thus to gain eternal happiness for their little ones. Moloch's arms are empty today, because men have learned.

But behold the insatiable maws of Mammon!

Mills mangling children to grind out gold—

Inadequately equipped railroads, gutted to pay dividends on watered stock, now in wrecks rending, crushing and maiming men, women and children—

Factories and stores where underpaid girls fight for life—

Mines where women and children are slain in labor wars—

The brothel, the brewery, the distillery and the bar—countless dead are here—and everywhere the cash register keeps tab.

Last week, when our streets were thronged with thousands of loving men and women, who needed not the curse of alcohol, two little men of brawn were slain. They were drunk; one was crushed in an elevator; the other was shot.

THEY BOUGHT PLEASURE. HOW CHEATED WERE THEY!

CASH REGISTERS MARKED THE PRICE OF THEIR DEATH.

WHO GOT THE MONEY?

It was divided between brewer, distiller, bar-keeper, LANDLORDS and YOU!

Will not the food bought with your gain choke?

Surely the tears of those who love these dead will glitter and glisten in the sheen of the gowns bought for wives and daughters with the gold gained by the death of these and other souls.

Choose you.

You cannot serve God and Mammon. Neither can you justify yourselves before men today.

Money lovers scoffed at Him; seeking to justify themselves, they bought Judas; they chose Barabbas, the robber, and slew their Lord in the vain effort to silence the truth. But today the risen Christ has so wrought upon the hearts of men that they, too, are getting the viewpoint of their God, our Father in Heaven. They have learned. They, too, loathe and abominate the things of Mammon, when they see and understand the cruelties practiced for his sake.

You cannot serve God and a cash register.

God calls. Happiness is in His hands.

His churches, as never before, are holding forth the word of life. NIGHT AFTER NIGHT, A DAY AFTER DAY, THE BAPTISTS OF OUR CITY ARE HOLDING SERVICES. Pray for the success of these meetings. Go to them. And this coming Sunday, let all of us go up to the house of prayer.

Jesus said: "If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in Heaven."

NOT TWO, BUT THOUSANDS IN ATLANTA ARE AGREED THAT OUR CITY AND OUR STATE SHALL BE WON AND HELD FOR CHRIST.

Even as you read this, cry out with us to God for Georgia and its Capital, that they may be saved from the curse of Mammon!

And Sunday, come with us to your Church.

We cannot serve God and Mammon.

You will serve God.

Atlanta's Council Captured By the Wonderful Luncheon Served by School Teachers

After being almost suffocated with heat and stuffy conditions to eat at the luncheon given by the faculties of the Girls' High and the English Commercial High schools, the "city fathers," including Mayor James E. Cox, and several members of the school board, were completely captured yesterday afternoon.

For weeks that "luncheon" will be the one topic around the city hall. It will be the gift of the city council or the board of education.

Friday was the day set aside by Miss Jessie M. Moore, of the Girls' High school, and Mrs. A. T. Wise, of the English Commercial High school, for the love feast to the city officials under the auspices of the school teachers.

There was a generous spread of food, singing by the 700 students, and then came the luncheon and the poetry in honor of the councilmen.

Here is Toast List:

The luncheon was served by the teachers of the schools as a sort of mark of appreciation for the action in passing the resolution equalizing the salaries of the teachers in the girls' and boys' high schools. Alderman James Armstrong, chairman of the school committee, was the first to speak. He occupied the place of honor as toastmaster at the luncheon. Toasts were offered as follows:

"To the Teachers, All Dairies," by Toastmaster Armstrong.

"To the School Board," by Councilman James Wood.

"To the Mayor," by Jerome Jones.

"To Atlanta's Council," by William H. T. Moore.

SHOULDERED BLAME TO SAVE J. P. MORGAN

presence and sent it to the United States district attorney, and I nearly killed everybody in the office to keep Mr. Morgan's name out of it."

"To keep Mr. Morgan's name out of what?" asked Mr. Polk.

"Out of the whole proceeding," Mr. Morgan said. "I have been subpoenaed in that matter."

"I have been subpoenaed by my counsel—I did not know it at the time—that he was subpoenaed, and I suppose he was subpoenaed, or notified whatever legal term it is for that action."

"Did you have any conversation with the present director of the road, Mr. J. P. Morgan?" asked Mr. Polk.

"The present director?"

"At the time Mr. Morgan called upon me and thought the change in the presidency was desirable, and I paid attention to the fact that I had been asked to resign, and I thought I deserved indictment to protect his feelings. He seemed quite affected, he turned to the window to compose his feelings, and I thought I would have action with the remark that his father's condition of health at that time was such that it undoubtedly would have killed him if he had been indicted. That was the condition I understood he was in when I took the responsibility upon myself and took the indictment that belonged to him."

"Where did you meet Mr. Ledyard?"

The extent to which Mr. Ledyard's testimony may reach is still an open question. Officials of the railroad have expressed the view that the testimony of Mr. Ledyard, if it is given, will be of great value to the government. Mr. Ledyard is a man of great influence in the railroad world, and his testimony is expected to have a great effect on the case.
